Location

Located along the banks of the Deschutes River and at the foothills of the Cascade Mountains, Bend is an energetic city with a fast growing population of over 77,000. To the east of the city is high desert vegetation and to the west is U.S. Forest Service land. Bend, county seat of Deschutes County, covers 32 square miles.

Bend is noted for its scenic setting, mild climate, growing economy, and diverse and vibrant culture. Locals and visitors engage in year-round outdoor recreation activities such as downhill and cross country skiing, rafting and kayaking, golfing, fishing, hiking, mountain biking, and much more.

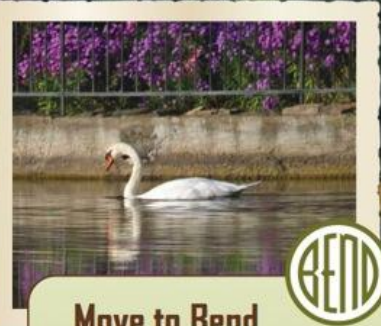

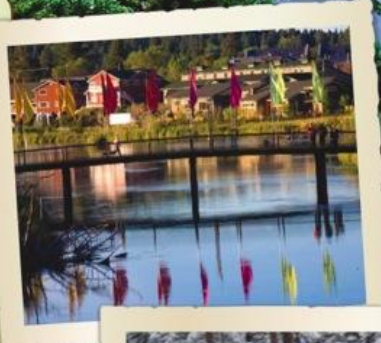

At an elevation of 3,625 feet, Bend enjoys the predominately dry climate of the Great Basin. Sunny days, low humidity, and cool nights provide the most common weather pattern.

Bend is located:

- 160 miles southeast of Portland
- 131 miles southeast of Salem
- 128 miles northeast of Eugene
- 496 miles northeast of San Francisco
- 343 miles southeast of Seattle
- 398 miles north of Reno
